Welcome to Sandy Park Café, thank you for your custom.

Sandy Park Café, run by registered charitable trust Student Futures, is a not-for-profit social enterprise business that helps young people with special needs and disabilities from Sandfield Park School gain valuable work experience. This, we hope, will help them gain paid employment in the future.

We are grateful for the amazing support that we have received from the AJ Bell Trust, Food for Thought, Quinn-Barrow Solicitors and Liverpool City Council, along with many others too numerous to mention.

We see this as the start of a journey, firstly to establish Sandy Park Café in Liverpool 13, but also to support other like-minded people in trying to help those with special needs and disabilities into the world of work; nationally, only 6% gain paid employment.

The AJ Bell Trust

The AJ Bell Trust is a registered charity established by Andy and Tracey Bell, in conjunction with the company AJ Bell. The Trust aims to help disadvantaged people to advance in life, with a particular focus on young people.

The AJ Bell Trust bought the Sandy Park property on Derby Lane in 2017 and completed a total refurbishment, converting the downstairs into Sandy Park Café and the upstairs into a two bedroom flat. The Trust has donated the whole building to Sandy Park Café rent-free.

The AJ Bell Trust is incredibly proud to have been able to support the staff and students of Sandfield Park School in establishing Sandy Park Café. As well as providing the students the opportunity to gain valuable skills and experience to help them progress in their future careers, the café is also a community hub where people can come to relax, socialise and enjoy the surroundings.

Food For Thought

Food For Thought is a not-for-profit school meals company, owned by its partner schools. FFT are currently working with 56 secondary, primary and special needs schools in the Liverpool area, plus two community café projects, with any surplus profit created given back to its customers. We are proud to support Sandfield Park School at the Sandy Park Café, providing training and work experience for young people with special needs and disabilities, and preparing them for jobs in the hospitality industry. We use locally sourced and organic produce where possible and are supporters of 'Meat-Free Monday' and the 'Living Wage Campaign'.
